Initiative One: Safety First

Safety first means that OYD values the safety of the youth placed in our care and the staff that provide services to them. This includes having a workforce focused on the rehabilitative needs of our youth. We believe that safety is the foundation and prerequisite for treatment. We promote a safe environment for our youth, families, staff, and communities.

Initiative Five: Data Driven Outcomes

OYD values evidence-based practices that promote measurable outcomes and quality services. We are committed to accurately reporting information that “tells the story” about the youth we serve. We support advances in information technology to improve data resources and information sharing internally and externally. We use this data to determine, anticipate, and respond appropriately to the needs of our youth, staff, stakeholders, and community partners.
